

Dear Koa~

I want to tell you how much I love what you do everyday. You make me laugh when I need it most - even on those stressful, silly days full of hellwork. You inspire me to keep trying and pushing forward, even when it's hard. And you bring me so much joy whenever I hear you sing aku ...

I'm actually having an awesome evening listening to you sing, while writing this, I'm laughing, I'm crying, and feeling every song "This is the best part of my day"

Keep chasing your dreams and following your ♥, because you deserve the world
(or "The Universe")

And don't let anyone or anything stop you from being happy.

I'm proud of you, and the effort you put into everything you do. I Love you soooooooooo much!

AKU

I'm super excited this is the first time doing something like this, just imagining this words
Traveling so much until reaching you, it feels extremely special ✨
Cheers to the Koaniki that made this possible!

Oh also this wasn't "The" year for me, but, one day I'll be right there in the crowd, cheering for you live, I know.

Sending you some long-distance pat pats, hopefully I can reach you from this far with so much love

Jeff
